

7521132591.txt

I am disgusted that the FCC can be controlled like puppets by telecom companies just out to make a buck. You are all spineless, good for nothing cowards that have proven the democratic process can be bought and paid for by special interest dollars.

The American people are vehemently against the FCC decision to end net neutrality. Who do you serve? The people or your buddies in the telecom companies? Pathetic. Shame on all of you.