

7521132764.txt

Please reclassify the internet as a common carrier. It is clear to me based upon your website that the FCC has little understanding of how the internet works. Please represent the people, the citizens of the united states, when making this decision. Not only does it change the lives of every American, but it will also has a global impact. Be on the side of history and and what will bring prosperity to our nation. Why change something that is working perfectly fine?