What you did today is wrong. It's a giveaway to corporations that can pay the highest bidder (or lobbyist).

The internet must be considered a public utility to be fair to all citizens. To do otherwise is fundamentally unfair and is not what Net Neutrality means.

Please listen to people on this and not just those who have a stake in the outcome financially, e.g. big business.

We've already got record income inequality and this would put a nail in the coffin of the democracy of the internet. The big players of telecom are doing fine making plenty off us as it is.
