

7521134057.txt

Please make internet providers follow the Title II of the Communications Act and make the internet a safe place. Right now there is a monopoly in that market and if that is not going to get away; prevent that monopoly from destroying the primary way of communication today in the United States.