

7521137393.txt

I believe internet providers should not be allowed to establish or accept payment for so-called "fast lanes". I also believe the FCC should use Title II to regulate internet providers, as they are a sort of common carrier.