

7521141835.txt

Net Neutrality in general should not happen. America is struggling enough with bills and Net Neutrality will make it even harder to the students and hard workers who inhabit american states. As a fellow student and avid user of the internet and someone who desperately needs to pay his bills every month: i say to whoever this may concern this is a terrible idea and will break much more than what you are expecting.