

Net Neutrality is important to the growth of knowledge. Impeding that in any way by charging unnecessary fees impedes freedom to information. When you were young would you have voted for this to pass? Knowledge is power. Don't try to monetize that. This isn't College. This is the World Wide Web.