

Michael Eaton
156 Ripley St.
Camarillo, CA 93010

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

May 17th, 2014

Dear Sir or Madam:

I want to register my opposition to the FCC's current proposal for the Internet fast lanes. This proposal to allow telecoms to alter bandwidth speed on a per content provider basis will do nothing but harm the economy by giving special treatment to large companies that can pay for faster speeds. The Internet needs to remain a highway of free and open communication. I urge you to reclassify Internet service providers under Title II Entities.

Regards,

Michael Eaton