

7521146359.txt

I am concerned about what the proposed FCC rules will do to Net Neutrality. I feel it is imperative that the government rule ISPs as public carriers and guarantee that all users are granted totally equal access to all available bandwidth - there should be no "tiering" or throttling of any net traffic.

Thank you very for your attention to this concern.