

7521148872.txt

I don't believe the FCC has the right to decide what is indecent and what is not. That is purview of each individual. I and more than capable of deciding for myself and my children what is appropriate. Therefore I support the relaxation of FCC regulation on nudity and language.

As an atheist I don't want someone else's religious ideology censoring what I and others find acceptable displays. IE Curtis Neeley Jr and other religious zealots.