

7521151068.txt

Comcast and Time Warner are already two of the largest internet service providers in the country, and in many cases they already have monopolies in certain geographical areas. Their merger would create an even more powerful monopoly. This is exactly what anti-trust laws are designed to prevent. We need more competition in this space, not less competition. I urge you to please oppose the merger of Comcast and Time Warner.