

7521151769.txt

It is my opinion that cable TV needs to be split apart with the cable plant distribution separated from the service that provides content. The cable portion should be a regulated utility like electricity and telephone.

Thank you