

7521152809.txt

I think it is ridiculous that the FCC is trying to protect companies that are making billions of dollars each year instead of doing it's job which is to protect the consumers.