

I am requesting that the FCC reclassifies internet service providers as title II common carriers.

The FCC needs to regulate all ISP's and carriers and prohibit the notion and/or the implementation of tiering internet access. ISP's already charge consumers exorbitant prices for mediocre services and these plans to end net-neutrality will encourage censorship and force consumers to pay more.

PLEASE so what is right for the people of this great country..