

7521153531.txt

I feel that this motion will create favoritism within large scale businesses, the wording is too vague and not strict enough. Internet providers should not be able to play favorites or create favoritism within specific websites. we need regulations for fair internet traffic as we have had for years. I request that all internet service providers be reclassified as title II common carriers. This is the only way to create fair use for consumers and all businesses alike.