

7521153673.txt

I am requesting that the FCC reclassifies Internet Service Providers as Title II Common Carriers.

I feel that the internet is a natural medium and should remain as such. If ISP's are allowed to selectively provide superior internet speeds based upon preference, it results in an unethical and broken system. It is not something that should be condoned.

Thank you for your time.