

7521153676.txt

Nothing affects our country's future as much as the future of the internet. Putting it in the hands of corporations that have shown little to no concern for the rights of the public is a terrible mistake. They can and will make their money in other ways. Do not let them ruin this.