

7521154199.txt

I feel that the current "net neutrality rules" that are being considered need more time to be fully vetted. As we can see with the ObamaCare rollout, the approach of get something out there and then refine it later will not work.

I urge you to vote no, and allow this to be further ratified.