

How can we let large companies like Verizon under the banner of a Title II carrier when it benefits them to lay FIOS lines around the country, but then when it comes to the internet they provide THROUGH THOSE FIOS LINES we allow them to be classified as a Title I carrier.

If we don't reclassify the internet as a common carrier big companies are going to have their cake and eat it too.