

7521154606.txt

People of the FCC:

I, like many people, am concerned about keeping the internet as it was meant to be. A place for people to gather and have a free and open place to create, distribute and receive information without intentional slow downs and restrictions. I request that the FCC reclassify ISP's as Title II carriers. Thank you for your time.