

Net Neutrality MUST remain. In a democracy we cannot allow the greed of special interests - in this case the cable companies Comcast and Time Warner - to make a mockery out of the internet. Net neutrality is a central tenant of the internet and MUST remain as is. The proceedings to create a fast lane must be stopped. This is a travesty of justice. Net neutrality must remain exactly as is currently.