Don't. Fucking. End. Net. Neutrality. The only fucking reason the internet has become the greatest achievement of the human race since the fucking wheel is because its is open. There is no fucking god damn reason to limit the speeds of any information is to line the fucking pockets of the cable companies. Fuck them. Fuck Comcast, fuck Time Warner, fuck Bright House, fuck Earth Link, fuck every single one of them. All of their service is terrible, and they don't do shit about it.

And fuck Tom Wheeler. Hes a faggot and a cunt and the only thing he deserves while he continues to run as the head of the FCC is a salt, lime, and razor lined horse dildo ramming him continuously until he begs for reprieve, only to be met with the cold eyes of ethical judgement and further anal torture.

But really, ending net neutrality is bullshit.
