

7521156967.txt

I believe that that the Internet should remain neutral we don't need cable companies crushing out any chance of competition. It's not wise to leave the hands of those wolves. Please for the love of all things American and holy keep the Internet neutral. Do not give the keys to the vault to the bank robbers.