

7521158078.txt

Net neutrality must be preserved to continue our proud tradition of equality and free speech. The proposed changes only prove once again the pervasive and corrosive effect of money on our political process.