

7521162925.txt

Please maintain net neutrality. It is so vital. In today's modern world, the internet is necessary to our every day living. It should be an open utility service, like the telephone, like water. Allowing Comcast to affect speed to the highest bidder will not encourage competition.