

7521164013.txt

Net neutrality is extremely important. The internet is one of the great equalizer for small businesses and such measures as this could cripple small business. Don't sell out to macro corporations who skirt on the line of full monopolization. Starting entrepreneurs such as myself will face devastating uphill battles. Don't destroy hometown America just as we are beginning to build better lives.