

7521165459.txt

Please reclassify Internet Service Providers as Title II common carriers. It has become very clear that the citizens of the US and big cable companies do not have common interests. Comcast and TWC should not be allowed to control (limit) anyone's access to data, no matter how they phrase it. They should have no right to interfere in this system, which is working properly as it stands.