

7521170798.txt

Capitalism cannot work if there are monopolies. Currently US citizens pay too much for mediocre service. If you make it legal for there to be a 'fast lane' or any lane better than another, you will allow for the content of the internet to be controlled by those with money. Please keep the net neutral and please encourage more companies to provide service to more users.