

7521171306.txt

Net neutrality must be maintained and furthermore there should be a considered breakup of companies and deans to be operating as a monopoly. There should be forced competition for better service and better business practices