

7521172265.txt

I ask that the FCC support all Americans having equal and fair access to the internet like in other countries. We already pay far more than our European counterparts for lower services.

It would be greater insult to all Americans that we would now be subjected to a two tiered speed for internet while continuing to pay a higher price than most in the world.

I request that the FCC reclassifies internet service providers as Title II common carriers.