

7521176403.txt

Please allow easier access for wireless microphone licenses. Both music and theatrical venues provide important cultural exposure to youth in schools, and traditionally they lack resources, especially if they are in rural areas. By facilitating licensing, performances will have less worries of interference during performances.