

7521176577.txt

Allowing Comcast to take over Time Warner Cable's assets will not result in increased competition between markets- instead it will homogenize the market, allowing Comcast an unfair advantage.

Comcast hasn't been known for good customer service or reliable data speeds- and adding more load to their networks will slow them down more.

I do not support this initiative and would ask the FCC to bar it.