

7521177295.txt

Net Neutrality is the basis of the internet and the core of the future of freedom, weather individual or corperate. No one should be able to legally dictate which companies get faster internet. Nothing will enliven this apathetic generation more then messing with their internet. I think your head should be fired for conflict of interest and someone who can't be bought and isn't in the pockets of the ONLY people who want to get rid of net neutrality should be heading up the FCC.