

7521180570.txt

Anything less than making high speed Internet a title 2 carrier is unamerican and will cripple any future innovation/competition. We used to be about freedom why should we let the cable companies run our lives by controlling who/what/when/&why we can see content.