

7521191072.txt

I support Net Neutrality. I oppose cable and phone company monopolies and their desire to extort the american people and small businesses by throttling and censoring a free and open Internet. Internet service should be reclassified as a telecommunications service.