

7521194923.txt

Fuck these cable company' s.

The internet was meant to be a free place.

An even playing field where all traffic is considered equal.

Why on earth would you consider segregating the internet so that only the rich companies can deliver there content in a timely manor.

Look at what has allowed the internet to grow and make these companies upgrade there infrastructure them selves instead of just passing on the cost to the content provi ders.