

7521198328.txt

Do not allow provider of internet services to charge certain customers (companies) more for greater access/speed to the internet. This is wrong on so many levels and hurts the consumer as well as businesses who are unable to pay additional fees to compete at the same level.