

Dear FCC,

I support net neutrality and resent attempts to create an internet with unequal access. The greatest problem in American society today is the rising gap in wealth and the current proposal to create a tiered internet adds to the problem. The current proposals will stifle innovation and reduce access to information. We need an all inclusive plan.