

While capitalism dictates that companies may offer goods and services for whatever compensation they deem appropriate, it is a criminal act to offer a service that is so blatantly being censored, monitored, and extorted. I demand that these companies be held accountable. I demand that their unlawful activities be stopped. I demand that this "request" of theirs, to make their unlawful deeds legal, be denounced, refused, and disallowed.