

7521224895.txt

I stand against giving the cable providers more power to control who is able to receive what content and at what speeds on the internet. Please support the concern of the people to keep the internet providers from creating a true monopoly.