

7521242924.txt

I am adamantly opposed to the attempts to create net neutrality. I feel disturbed that corporate internet providers have so much influence that they are able to advocate for such internet inequality. Please do not allow this to occur. I'd like to hope that we have some semblance of a democratic society left, though I am increasingly discouraged by evidence such as attempts to create net neutrality that points otherwise. Thank you.