

As a wireless ISP operating in the rural areas of Texas, one of the largest hurdles for cost effective broadband deployment is backhaul capacity. The current 5.8Ghz bands are crowded with traffic from WISPs and consumer routers. A 10Ghz link would fit nicely in the 10-25 mile range needed between rural towns.

Thank you,

Jim Bouse

Owner, Brazos WiFi

11452 Coleman St

Bryan, TX 77808