

7521253334.txt

Every one should have the same internet speed and the same chance at there content being viewed. The fact that I have to tell you this makes me lose faith our society. Our Founding Fathers wanted equality, we came to this land in search of freedom and equality. Capitalizing on the internet will not grant us either. Follow the intent of our constitution or our country will fail.