

7521254342.txt

I continue to pay more for high speed internet and cable service annually through TWC, however, I experience slower download speeds. TWC tells me I can receive faster speeds by paying more. Countries in Europe are providing high speed connections to everyone at a fair and equitable price. U.S. cable and internet providers should do the same.