

7521256708.txt

I would like to thank you for premetively destroying a little more of America. We all have no doubt that this this will pass. I just don't have the money to change it. I don't believe in a God to prevent it. I only have the government to rely on and we all know how that turns out. You have made many people angry and many people sad. You have made me finally want to move.