

7521261011.txt

It is an outrageous thought that there is a plan in motion for this, please protect net neutrality. It is crucial for a free-market, democratic society. Without it, competition and innovation will be severely harmed. The FCC should protect the public good. Do the right thing and keep the internet equally available to all.