

7521261611.txt

In this emergent world order where information is commoditized for free and independent agents to make and spread ideas, the fundamental rights granted by democracy demand the internet remain neutral. It is characteristic of oppressed nations to have a non neutral or censored internet, and we will not be oppressed.