

7521262893.txt

We cannot let the cable companies mediate who gets what amount of bandwidth in comparison to smaller companies. For most people only one or two companies are available to them, that will make a monopoly in almost any place.