

7521266067.txt

Dear FCC,

Even though your new commission was a lobbyist for the cable companies that wish to do away with net neutrality, I firmly believe that such an effort is a mistake. The neutrality of data speeds on the internet is vital to our country's economic growth in this area of commerce, and the FCC should work to keep this concept fully in place.

Sincerely,
David Brandass
Sedona, AZ