

7521266970.txt

Extend wireless service through the nation. We have ip phones, the phones are ready for an REA like program that brought electricity to all americans. It's not profitable for commercial companies to do it so they won't. Give all Americans equal access to the National Backbone. Anyone driving or living anywhere in the United States should be able to connect to the internet.